

This course has two parts: the 1st is dedicated to the study of initiating a civil trial (concepts of legal proceedings – existence and application). The second part will study the legal framework of the trial (choice of judicial body, functioning of the legal pursuit and its outcome).