

Criminal law refers to legal rules that organize the reaction of the state to offenses and offenders. This course aims at studying the common ground rules for all offenses (general criminal law). These rules determine what constitutes a violation of the criminal law (Part 1) define the modalities of criminal involvement (Part 2) and determine the conditions of application of the sentence (Part 3).