

This course has two parts: the first part is devoted to the study of the married couple (marriage, problem of marriage, separation and divorce) and unmarried couples (cohabitation, PACS), the second part is devoted to the study of child filiation (based on blood ties; adoptive filiation; medically assisted procreation)