

After an introduction to labor law (brief history, presentation of the business world), this course is devoted to the presentation of the birth, the execution and finally the breaking of the employment contract.