

The founding principles of labor law: different attitudes towards work, groups of workers. The emergence of labor law: "the worker's logbook", the employment contract. The "conseils des prud'hommes". Development of labor law: the duration of the work, hygiene and safety, social protection, the birth of European social law.