

Private international law is studying private international private legal relations. Private international law 1 aims to understand how these relationships are addressed to.

Will be discussed:

- 1) The issue of international jurisdiction (which court wearing a lawsuit? Under what conditions French courts have jurisdictions?).
- 2) How to determine the law applicable to International private relationship.
- 3) The effect of foreign judgments.