

Presentation of property (tangible and intangible). Notion of patrimoine. Relationship between people and goods through the study of property rights, in its individual and collective dimension (ownership, condominium of buildings built), and acquisition of ownership (possession, prescription ...).