Internship opportunities

Allen & Overy is a leading global law firm operating in over thirty countries with a worldwide reputation built on local expertise.

Today, our law firm in Luxembourg is composed of 150 lawyers who advise on both local and cross-border matters, transactions and projects, offering a full service one-stop-shop across every relevant area of the law, including: banking/finance, capital markets, regulatory, corporate and M&A, investment funds, tax, employment, IP, data and tech, real estate, insurance, restructuring and insolvency, and disputes.

Our culture is one of high-performance and we have high expectations of one another in everything we do. Being a proud team player is essential. We work together, listen and learn from one another and achieve results we could never achieve on our own. When you join our team, you'll become part of a flexible, inclusive environment underpinned by openness and consistent support for one another. At A&O, you're not only valued for what you do, but for who you are.

We have a powerful commitment to diversity, equity and inclusion, and we're working hard to create an environment where you can bring your authentic self to work. We know that to excel, we must nurture an environment where our people feel they belong.
